

SHOWROOM

Inspiration is easy. Deciding what to buy isn't.

A beautiful reference photo still leaves you guessing how the room will feel, what will fit your budget, and which pieces to choose.

01

You can't see it together.

Separate photos make it hard to judge the look of a whole room.

02

The details get lost.

Your budget, preferences and furniture to keep disappear across tabs.

03

The picture isn't a plan.

An inspiring image needs real product links and a useful shopping list.

See it. Direct it. Shop it.

A NEW PERSPECTIVE

Keep the room. Change the feeling.

Direct the details as your space evolves.

Your taste. Your budget. Your non-negotiables.
